

2018 Civil War Reenactment

Presented by

You Can Live History

Hosted by Donna Shell, in Monument, Colorado

Training & Issue Uniforms

Saturday March 24th 11am-5pm

Registration 10am-10:45am

Address provided to participants

Day one starts with storytelling and history, followed by soldier drills consistent with the civil war era, training in acting skills and prop safety. Each participant will be issued a full uniform and prop weapon appropriate to their character assignment. Characters will be comprised of privates, captains, officers, flag bearers, cannoneers and drummers. To be chosen by YCLH staff depending on enthusiasm, leadership and acting skills. At the end of the day, all soldiers will be ready to Live History.

Victorian Ball

Friday April 6th

Dance Lessons 12pm-2pm

Ball 6pm-9pm

First Baptist Church Black Forest,

10915 Black Forest Road, Colorado Springs, CO 80908

Day two starts with etiquette and period dance instructions. Gentlemen's costumes are provided (on training day). However Ladies Attire is not included. Ball gowns for ladies have to be personally provided. Our Victorian ball will begin with our live civil war band, playing period instruments. Dancing will commence with authentic dances such as the Virginia Reel, Grand March and the Waltz. Light refreshment will be served, surely to be the social event of the season.

Battle Reenactment

Saturday April 7th 10am-5pm

Address provided to participants

Day three starts with troop inspection and bayonet issuing. All props and or prop weapons are specifically designed to be safe but realistic looking. Setting our back drop will be functional props such as cannons, wagons, tents and fortification. An onsite videography crew will film the entire event to be made into a short movie. The day will depict actual events pertaining to the Civil War. The experience will hopefully inspire our youth to learn from our history and use our history for a better tomorrow. This is the mission of YCLH.

Tickets available until March 24th at 10:45am- Bring lunch and water (will not be provided) - Please be on time for all events.