YOU CAN LIVE HISTORY STUDENT CONTRACT

This contract is to insure the safety and enjoyment of all students participating in a You Can Live History (YCLH) reenactment so that all may have the best experience possible. Violating any part of this contract can serve as cause for you to be suspended from the reenactment temporarily or expelled permanently. In the case that a student is suspended or expelled from the battle, there will be no refund of the fees by YCLH.

Show Respect to People. A respectful attitude is required at all times: to the YCLH staff, teachers, student officers, and each other. You will be shown respect and will be expected to show it to others. Any students fighting with other students or showing disrespect to any adults will be immediately suspended or expelled from the battle.

Show Respect to the Equipment. Take excellent care of any equipment – costumes, weapons, tents, etc. – that you are issued. In addition, take care of other props, such as artificial walls, tents, and wagons.

Wear Your Uniform Correctly. At all times, throughout training and especially on battle day, wear your uniform as you have been instructed. If you are unsure, ask one of the YCLH staff. Check on each other and politely inform someone if part of their uniform has become discolored with powder, disarrayed, or unfastened.

Respect the Environment. All students are required to help police the area for trash, equipment, and personal belongings.

Obey Orders. All orders are given with a purpose in mind. Student officers have been given authority to direct their troops and must be obeyed as if they were teachers or YCLH staff.

Listen for Directions. The day of battle is very busy with many scenes being recorded as the movie is being made. It is important that you are quiet and listen for directions from the YCLH staff or the student officers.

Play the Part You are Assigned. In creating a historical reenactment and making a movie, it is important that students play their roles well. If you slip out of character and start acting silly, you can ruin the shot involving tens or even hundreds of students doing their best to play the parts of soldiers. We will not be able to use that footage and you may be suspended temporarily or expelled.

No Foul or Inappropriate Language. Such behavior is grounds for immediate expulsion.

Keep Safety in Mind at All Times. Look out for yourself and others. Be aware when taking a hit, retreating from the battle, etc. Intentionally pointing a weapon in someone's face, harming someone (including careless throwing or blowing flour into someone's face) is grounds for suspension or expulsion.

Equipment Assigned to You is Not to be Traded with Others. Make sure that your equipment is properly cared for, protected and accounted for at all times. Make sure to retrieve your gear at the end of every take. If you should find a piece of equipment that appears to be abandoned or broken, do not acquire it for yourself but turn it in immediately to a teacher or YCLH staff member.

Turn in Your Equipment and Uniform as Directed. Putting on a battle re-enactment takes a lot of coordination and participation by all involved. Please follow directions for returning your uniform and equipment in an orderly manner.

Be Where You are Supposed to Be. Do not leave the battle area without telling one of the YCLH staff and your teacher.

Disregard of any of the above terms can result in immediate expulsion. This means you must turn in all equipment and all refunds are forfeited. Teachers or parents will be responsible for chaperoning any student removed from the re-enactment. The student and his/her parents have the right to appeal to the YCLH staff.

I have read and understand YCLH Student Contract. I agree to abide by the terms spelled out in the contract and understand that not following these policies may lead to my suspension or expulsion from the re-enactment.
